

Faces of Haywood Award

Faces of Haywood award is determined by a nomination and selection process of the Ambassadors of the Haywood Chamber of Commerce. The award is given in recognition of an individual who is a member and demonstrates one or more of the following _____.

Nominations are made and submitted to the Chamber.

The Ambassadors reviews nominations on an annual, quarterly or monthly basis to evaluate and select the nominees based upon the following criteria.

Eligibility:

- Must be a Haywood Chamber of Commerce member
- Serves as an inspiration to others
- Consistently demonstrate qualities of compassion and service to one or more organizations
- Demonstrate a high level of professional integrity
- Possesses leadership qualities
- Achieved professional and personal accomplishments
- Leads the charge in order to initiate and idea or project

Recipients are recognized in the Mountaineer and Smoky Mountain News depending on availability of space. In addition, each will be posted on the chamber's social media accounts and recognized at the monthly Issues and Eggs breakfast meeting.
